Dear Millard:

Thank you very much for your letter of 7 October concerning the success of the briefing program recently arranged for Colonel Fisher with respect to our activities. I have relayed your appreciation to those concerned.

We are grateful for the opportunity to provide such briefings to key officers in the Intelligence Community. I'm sure the better understanding which is established through this means is of mutual benefit.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Pearre:

I wish to express our appreciation for the most valuable and comprehensive briefings given to Colonel Thomas L. Fisher, II, the new Chief of our Special Study Group, during the week of 3 September. He reports that all Agency members concerned gave him maximum time and attention in conveying information about their respective activities. Further, all briefings were most efficiently organized.

I am informed that the success of this effort largely has been due to the arrangements made by Mr. [redacted] your liaison officer to the Air Force, and to the actual program which was handled by [redacted] for DDI.

This special briefing effort was of considerable value to the Air Force in that it provided one of my key policy officers with an over-all picture of areas of mutual interest and contact. In addition to areas of DDI interest, the added briefings on DDP (PPC) and OTR activities have been of especial value, due to Colonel Fisher's five years of experience in the Agency and its predecessor organizations.

Sincerely,

S/
